

```

205. class OSCListener():
206.     def __init__(self):
207.         self.serverip = "127.0.0.1"
208.         self.port = 12000
209.         #Programaufruf
210.         self.appStart = time.time()
211.         self.soundFetcher = fsFetcher()
212.         self.soundFetcher.createDirs()
213.     def handlerForWLR(self, x, y, z):
214.         # Will receive message data unpacked in x,yz
215.         # Koordignatenaufruf, Download
216.         sounds = self.soundFetcher.selectSounds(geo=[x,y,z])
217.         download = self.soundFetcher.downloadSounds(sounds)
218.
219.
220.     def startup(self):
221.         # Start the system.
222.         if config.DEBUG:
223.             print("starting up Server...")
224.         osc_startup()
225.
226.         # Make server channels to receive packets.
227.         osc_udp_server(self.serverip, self.port, "aservername")
228.
229.         # Associate Python functions with message address patterns, using default
230.         # argument scheme OSCARG_DATAUNPACK.
231.         osc_method("/incommingWLR*", self.handlerForWLR)
232.         if config.DEBUG:
233.             print("listening..")
234.
235.     def shutdown(self):
236.         osc_terminate()
237.
238.     def listenLoop(self):
239.         # Periodically call osc4py3 processing method in your event loop.
240.         finished = False
241.         while not finished:
242.             try:
243.                 osc_process()
244.             except KeyboardInterrupt:
245.                 finished = True
246.                 osc_terminate()
247.                 raise
248.
249.         # Properly close the system.
250.         self.shutdown()
251.
252.
253. server = OSCListener()
254. server.startup()
255. server.listenLoop()
256.
257. appStop = time.time()
258. print ("Programmdauer: ")
259. print (appStop - appStart)

```